

General Information on Custody Modification

1. Both parents have a right to have a relationship with their child, and a child has a right to have a relationship with both parents. Usually it is best for the child if both parents can agree about custody and visitation. If an agreement cannot be reached and a Custody Complaint is filed with the Court, then the Court will decide what it believes is in the child's best interest.
2. If you and the other parent cannot agree and you file a Custody Complaint, be sure that you know what it is that you want and why you want this arrangement. Remember that the Court will almost always give the other parent extended visits with the child outside of your home, so be sure to think through your proposal to see if it seems reasonable.
3. Sometimes, it is best to take no action. For example, if there have been no problems with the other parent, or the other parent has not attempted to visit the child in a while, there should be no reason to file a Custody Complaint. Since the court will most likely give the other parent liberal periods of time with the child, such as every other weekend, holidays and a period of time in the summer, it may be better for you and your child to simply keep the current arrangement and to make the other parent file a Custody Complaint in the future if he/she wants to change the present schedule.
4. If you are sued for Custody, read the Complaint carefully so that you know what arrangement the other parent believes is in the best interests of the child. If you can talk with the other parent without fighting, it is possible that you can work out an agreement before the hearing.
5. It is up to each party to obey the Custody Order which you will receive after the Conciliation Conference. If the other parent is not following the Order, you should keep track of the incidents and notify the other parent in writing that you expect the Order to be followed. If the violations of the Order are serious, such as the other parent refuses to bring the child back after a period of partial custody, or refuses to allow you to visit the child on the schedule which was ordered by the Court, then you may file a Petition for Civil Contempt which would result in a hearing before the Judge to determine if the other parent should be punished for disobeying the Order.
6. The Custody Order can always be changed as long as both parents agree to the changes. If the changes are major, such as where the child will live, it is best to file a Motion to Modify Custody. If the changes are minor, such as what time the child will be picked up for a visit, then there is no need to change the Order as long as both of you agree to the changes.
7. Normally, the Court will grant custodial rights to biological parents, only. However, if someone else, such as a grandparent, aunt/uncle, sibling, or a close family friend feels that the child would be better off with them, then they will have to prove a great deal more to be given custody of the child than either of the child's parents will be required to prove. If the child is now living with someone other than a parent and has lived with this person for an extended period of time, then this person must be listed as a Defendant in your Custody Complaint along with the other parent, and this person must also be served with a copy of the Complaint so that he/she can attend the hearing.

Instructions for Completing the Custody Forms

(if you DO have a current Custody Order)

THE INFORMATION REQUESTED IN THE FOLLOWING FORMS SHOULD BE TYPED OR NEATLY PRINTED IN THE BLANKS PROVIDED

I. CUSTODY SEMINAR:

- A. It is a requirement of the Court that all parties must attend the seminar “Venango County Co-Parenting Cooperative”. This two to three (2-3) hour seminar is offered by LeGoullon Counseling Services. A schedule can be obtained at the Law Library, Second Floor of the Venango County Courthouse. Registration occurs 15 minutes prior to the beginning of class. If you previously attended the seminar you will not need to attend it again.
- B. There is a $50.00 attendance fee which is assessed against each party.
- C. The parties can attend together or separately. ONLY individuals with an ACTIVE PFA in place, are REQUIRED to contact LeGoullon Counseling Services. All others are to report directly to the class for registration.
- D. When you have successfully completed this seminar, the instructor will give you a certificate of completion. It is your responsibility to file this certificate with the Prothonotary.

II. IN FORMA PAUPERIS:

If you were previously permitted to proceed in forma pauperis or wish to ask the Court to waive filing and service fees related to your case, you must file pleadings called “Praecipe to Proceed In Forma Pauperis” and an “Affidavit in Support of Praecipe to Proceed In Forma Pauperis”.

III. SELF-REPRESENTED PARTY FORM:

If you do not plan to hire an attorney to represent you in your custody case or if you have used an attorney in the past for your custody case, but now would like to represent yourself, then you MUST complete, file with the Court and serve on opposing parties and/or their counsel the form which is provided on page 13. After you have provided all of the information requested by this form, then you must sign and date it in the space provided.

IV. CAPTION:

Fill in the names of the parties EXACTLY as they are found on your previous order of court. Cross off the word “Respondent” beside your name (as you are the Petitioner) and “Petitioner” beside the name of the other party (as they are the Respondent). Also use the same civil number found on your previous court order.

V. THE COMPLAINT:

A. The Body of the Complaint:

1. At number “1”, fill-in your name after the word “Petitioner”, your mailing address (Street address, PO Box, City, State, Zip code), and telephone number.
2. At number “2”, fill-in the name of the other party after the word “Respondent”, their mailing address (Street address, PO Box, City, State, Zip code), and telephone number.
3. At number “3”, fill-in the date of your previous court order after the words “respectfully represents that on”. Attach a copy of your previous court order to the Petition. You should also circle the “type of custody” that the COURT ENTERED. You can find this information in your previous Court Order.
4. At number “4”, explain why you believe the previous court order should be modified. For example, has the other parent’s situation gotten worse or has yours gotten better, or does the child now express an interest that he/she wants to live with you primarily? Remember that space is limited, so here you will want to hit only the highlights. At the Conciliation Conference, you can explain to the Conciliator and other party, in detail, why you want your Custody Order to be modified.
5. At number “5” states that you have completed and included a “Criminal Record/Abuse History” form with your Petition to Modify.
6. Next, sign your Petition in the space provided.
7. The “Verification”, which is required by the Court, says that all of the information which you have provided in the Complaint is true and correct. If this is the case, then sign and date the verification on the lines provided.

B. Scheduling Order:

1. Complete the caption of the Scheduling Order in exactly the same way that you completed the caption of the Petition.
2. In the first line of the scheduling order, after the word “you” in the blank in the first line of the scheduling order. Place the names of the child or children who are at issue in your case in the blank after the words “rights of the following child(ren)” and their date of birth.
3. Leave the name of the Custody Conciliator—the blank line before the word “Esquire”—blank (the Court will appoint this person).
4. Also, leave the date, time and place of the Custody Conciliation Conference blank (the Court will set the date, time and place).

5. Please note the paragraph which states that each party is required to fill-out and file with the Court "Criminal History/ Abuse History" forms. These forms are included in this packet.
6. In addition, please note the paragraph which states that each party is required to attend a seminar called "Venango County Co-Parenting Cooperative." A schedule can be obtained at the Law Library, Second Floor of the Venango County Courthouse.
7. Also, please note the paragraph which states that neither party may change the child's residence, in a way that would impair the other party's ability to exercise custodial rights, without following the required relocation procedures.
8. On the last page of the scheduling order, leave the blank above the word "Judge" and the date blank (the Judge assigned to your case will sign and date the order when he approves it).
9. Last, as the Court has to mail the order to you to let you know date and time of your Custody Conciliation Conference, you must place your name and mailing address, and the defendant's name and mailing address after the abbreviation "cc:".

VI. COPIES OF YOUR PETITION & FILING:

Before you file your Petition, you will need to make two copies of the Petition. You will then file the original (the one that you signed in blue ink) at the Prothonotary's Office which is located on the 1st floor of the Venango County Courthouse, 1168 Liberty Street, Franklin, Pennsylvania. One copy will be for your records, the other copy you will need to serve the other party.

VII. SERVING COPIES OF YOUR PETITION:

- A. When you file a "Petition For Modification of a Partial Custody or Visitation Order", you do not have to go through the extensive and somewhat burdensome steps which are required to make service when you file an original Complaint for Custody. You can simply serve the other party by mailing a copy of your Petition to him/her by first class mail, postage pre-paid at his/her last known address.
- B. Insert the date of service (or anticipated date of service since you will be filing the Petition before you serve it) and the address to which you will be mailing the Petition. Then sign your name on the line above where it says "petitioner".

VIII. PETITIONER'S CRIMINAL RECORD / ABUSE HISTORY VERIFICATION:

- A. You must complete and file this form and the Confidential Document form with the Custody Complaint. There are two copies of this form in this packet. You must complete one and file it with your complaint. You must include the other blank form with the complaint when you serve the opposing party. This form may be used by the Custody Conciliator and the Court during your custody proceedings.
- B. You must check the box next to a crime that either you or a household member has been convicted of, pled guilty to, or pled no contest to and you must check the appropriate boxes if there has been a finding of abuse either by a CYS agency or in a PFA proceeding. You must also check the box and state whether there have been any CYS investigations concerning you or any members of your house involving any of your children whether or not they are the subjects of this custody case. You must also answer the questions that follow, if applicable.
- C. You must be truthful on this form or you could be fined, imprisoned or both. If you are not sure of a crime that you or a household member should list, you can visit the website listed which provides access to search, view and print the docket sheets for Pennsylvania's courts. You should check both the Magisterial Court Docket Sheets and the Court of Common Pleas Docket Sheet:

<http://ujsportal.pacourts.us/DocketSheets/CP.aspx>

IX. DEFENDANT'S CRIMINAL HISTORY / ABUSE HISTORY VERIFICATION:

A second copy of the Criminal History / Abuse History Verification and the Confidential Document form are included in this packet. It must be sent to the defendant when you send the Complaint. The defendant must fill this form out and file it with the Court.

PLEASE REMEMBER TO TYPE OR PRINT NEATLY THE INFORMATION WHICH IS REQUESTED IN THE FOLLOWING FORMS

IN FORMA PAUPERIS FORM INSTRUCTIONS

If you want to file a Complaint, but you cannot afford to pay the filing fee at the Prothonotary's Office or fee for service at the Sheriff's Office, then you must fill-out the enclosed Praecipe to Proceed In Forma Pauperis and the supporting Affidavit (collectively known as the "IFP"). The IFP will ask the Court to waive the Prothonotary's filing fee based on your financial circumstances.

Please be sure to read these instructions and fill-out these forms as completely and carefully as you can. Remember to print or type neatly. Your answers must be truthful and complete. Do not leave blanks. If a question or section does not apply to you, then neatly write "not applicable" or "none" in the space provided.

Step 1: Fill-out the Praecipe to Proceed In Forma Pauperis as follows:

- (1) Complete the caption of the Praecipe to Proceed In Forma Pauperis in the same way as you did on the Scheduling Order per the instructions for the Complaint in section A.(1)(a) above.
- (2) The first paragraph of the Praecipe to Proceed In Forma Pauperis should be completed as follows:
 - (a) Kindly allow (your name), the plaintiff / defendant in this matter, to proceed in forma pauperis.
 - (b) Date and sign your name on the Praecipe to Proceed In Forma Pauperis.

Step 2: Fill out the Affidavit in Support of Praecipe to Proceed In Forma Pauperis as follows:

- (1) Complete the caption of the Affidavit in Support of Praecipe to Proceed In Forma Pauperis in the same way as you did on the Scheduling Order per the instruction for the Complaint in section A.(1)(a) above.
- (2) Insert your full name and current street address in section (a).
- (3) Insert information concerning your employment or unemployment situation, as may be applicable, in section (b).
- (4) List all business or self-employment income (e.g., babysitting or selling Avon); investment income (e.g., stock market, pension/retirement account or bank-related investments); or government benefit income (e.g., Social Security, Workers' Compensation, Unemployment Compensation or Welfare benefits) which you have received within the past 12 months in section (c).
- (5) If your husband or wife works, receives self-employment or non-employment income; your children work, receive Social Security income or child support payments; or your parents or others support you or contribute to your household income, then please list the amount and frequency of this income in the space provided in section (d).

- (6) List the amount of money which you have in your pocket or your bank accounts and the value of all assets which you own, such as, real estate, vehicle(s) (make, year, cost and amount owed) and any other investments in section (e).
- (7) List the monthly amount of all of your debts and other financial obligations (don't forget about credit card bills, personal loans, medical bills, student loans, utility bills, government benefit overpayments, debts owed to former landlords or car loans) that you actually pay on a monthly basis in section (f). For this section, it is important to honestly state all of your debts, since it is more likely that your IFP will be granted if your disposable income (that is, the difference between your income and expenses) is very low.
- (8) List all of the people who are dependent upon you for financial support, e.g., your husband or wife, children or other persons in section (g).
- (9) Sign and date the verification clause in paragraph 5 where indicated.

Step 3: Complete the caption of the Order according to the instructions for the Complaint in section A.(1)(a) above.

Step 4: File the completed IFP form along with your Complaint. Remember to keep a copy for yourself.
